Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 25 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly cloudy with rain or showers.

Today:
Some bright or sunny spells in the northeast, but a generally cloudy day. Fresh southwest winds will bring rain or showers, most frequent in the west with the northeast seeing a mostly dry day.

Tonight:
Showery outbreaks of rain turn heavier in the evening and early in the night, with a band of heavier more persistent rain sweeping east late in the night. Strong winds.

Friday:
Rain clears east in the morning with sunny spells and showers to follow. Showers often heavy in the west, and turning wintery across high ground in increasingly cold air.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A cold frosty start, a few wintery showers Saturday, but mostly dry and cloudy. Turning milder overnight with strong winds and rain. Breezy with rain or showers Sunday and Monday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.